CENTRAL UNION NOTES.

Editor Advertiser: After an enforced vacation the Central Union church is at work again with more than usual vigor. Strangers at last Sunday's services were greeted not only with handshakes but with a dainty little "Welcome" card introduced by Mr. Brown. The card is printed in colors, notes the regular services of the week, contains a hearty welcome from the pastor, gives names of the workers with hours at which they may be seen at the church and includes a slip on which newcomers may record their names and addresses to deposit in a box just placed in the vestibule.

Mr. Brown is planning to have card catalogues of all members of the congregation and of the Bible school, and last Sunday slips were distributed in order to get the necessary data.

A set of large rubber type is in evidence in various ways in the Bible school and on a bulletin in front of the church calling the attention of strangers to the services, young men to a new class for them, and thinking people to a class just forming for study of the lesson and the best ways of presenting it to different classes. Mrs. Brown will conduct the class tomorrow and a full attendance of men and women is desired.

A plan of visitation of all districts of the city is about to be launched. A mimeograph is proving its value in many lines of church work.

The pastor will preach at both services tomorrow—in the morning on "Mystery" and in the evening on "Sympathy." On the platform in the lecture room in a Wernicke bookcase is an up-to-date missionary library of about forty volumes. It is the property of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, but that society generously offers the use of it to all interested friends.

It is reported that twenty health guards at Kalahe detention camp who were formerly stationed there as members of the First Regiment, had some difficulty with the authorities at the camp last evening and left in a body.
